

Facets: The Devil's Democracy

The Death Throes of the Progressive Democratic Establishment, & the Rebirth of Our Republic...

By TLB Contributing Author: Ken LaRive

March 9, 2017

No matter where we find ourselves on the political spectrum these days, no one can deny there is a war going on, a war of ideas. One of our revered Founding Fathers, Noah Webster, addressed this conundrum in his lifetime, and his insight is relevant today. He called it the demoralization of language, and suggested that the destruction of every civilization had its language subverted first, increment by increment, word by word. He said that without a verifiable and defined standard definition, a country soon self-destructs.

Language can be used to uplift or fortify a country or individual, to educate, to stabilize ideas, and to keep moral and ethics viable. He noted many times that the promotion of verifiable truth is a demand that must be met. Without that our ability to make decisions are drastically diminished. When we no longer have the ability to make a truth-driven decision, Liberty is dead, and we are little more than mindless slaves to an institution of Tyranny.

Truth

President Trump made it into office by the skin of his teeth, no matter who says otherwise, and for a wide variety of reasons. There were Catholics praying the rosary because Mr. Trump was Pro Life, blacks who want the violence to stop, Hispanics who wanted high quality immigrants coming through the front door, like they did, and Patriots who want their civil Liberties, Due Process, and our Constitutional Republic restored... and hundreds more. That is the power that got him elected, unity... for the good of America and We the People.

The Progressive Marxist/Socialist that have had us by the throat are now severely diminished, and one can witness its death throes from their media to their many tentacles they have in Washington's beltway bureaucracy... but one can be sure, they are still very dangerous. Like a panicked drowning victim, they grasp and struggle, using any means necessary, covert and/or clandestine, to remain in power. Their handlers, i.e., the international banking cartel in league with the Federal Reserve, conglomerate corporations and industries, and corporate media, are seemingly at odds with the way these events are turning out. One might argue that these entities have too much power and control, too much influence over our government, and ignoring the will of the people. Explicitly, it isn't only an exchange of power that is an issue, but there are also trillions of assets at stake... Assets that move and shake this world in a certain and profound direction, and well hidden from the light of day. You can believe they will not take a loss on either without a fight, a fight to the death. Our country is at stake, and a lot more you will see below...

Yes, we live in exciting times, with many opportunities, but it is dangerous as well, especially if one does not play the game. These self-proclaimed elite masters have the amazing ability to print money out of thin air, and they have used it to kill and destroy all opposition, or potential opposition... from Presidents to any individual who oppose or even suggest a question. Let us also bring to light that what they do, and have done, show no moral standard... Anything goes, and it is well orchestrated by the use of super computers who give potential directions as accurately as any chess champion. They can, by the control of world economics, finance both sides of war, with time-tested methods to sustain profit on both the winner and loser... as all wars are banker wars.

The war between Truth and deception...

For the first time in America's history, people are seeing, and understanding the methodology of their own manipulation, and standing up to that powerful influence with an unprecedented unity... Though each of us has a slightly different reason, we can work together for a common cause... and is a power the seemingly elite establishment fears the most. If this does not work, however, the only alternative is outright insurrection, and many are preparing for just that.

How evident has it become as we see the media's instigation of lies and fake news? When eyes are opened to this truth, there is a quickening of energy that inspires and transcends those who oppress, and the attempts to demoralize and confuse no longer work. Trusting power is dying along with its convoluted truth, and the fear that strangled us, that blurred the lines of what is good, bad, right and wrong, no longer have teeth. Indeed, there is strength in unity, an unparalleled unity powered by Truth.

It is shocking to realize the scope of this betrayal, as Pandora's box is opened. We see that many of our children have been intentionally brainwashed and propagandized by progressive, Government-run learning institutions, and that it has had lasting, and in some cases permanent effect. This must stop. We so trusted that the institution had the good of our nation and the welfare of our children as primary, and that they took their oath with the responsibility to fill their open and undeveloped minds with truth. No, that was not their intent, and hasn't been for a generation. With malice and forethought, they intentionally filled them with subversive, Communistic indoctrination... a propaganda that is diametrically opposed to our fundamental principles of Liberty from Tyranny, a Civil Liberty inspired by God, and a Constitutional Republic based on Law. We also see that the Progressive movement has America on a level hard to imagine, and it affects everything we love and hold dear in this life.

To those who have their eyes open, it has become blatantly obvious how diametrically opposed Progressivism is, not only to our Republican form of government, but to our Christian ethics and morals as well. Principles that are the very core of American Exceptionalism, along with Christian values that are the bedrock we have built upon.

A rose, by any other name...

Words like Democracy took the place of the word Republic, and mandates like the Patriot Act, the Federal Reserve, and many other changes in our language, confused and perplexed our ability to grasp the lie. When a Presidential contender can win two elections on a nebulous platform of “Change, for the sake of Change,” it brings this war of words to our very door. It challenges, and promised to undermine the very roots of our American heritage, and the standard that we have suffered and died to defend.

In one generation, a mere flicker of time, new words have been introduced into our language that do not elevate, but lowered the moral standards and principles that took thousands of years to develop. Our laws were formulated to save us, to guide us, to help us work together, and they have been thwarted at every turn. Our sovereignty has been destroyed by open borders, and our culture is being inundated by cultures hell-bent to displace us. Some have become so powerful they control 95 percent of the media, insurance, manufactures of war machines and tools, complete control of our Congress, and are cemented in place, and protected, by unlimited resources, a money system they alone control. One might contemplate that our very existence as a nation is at stake, but it is far graver than that. They refuse to assimilate, and consider us but cattle to be used or abused, as is written in their holy book. So powerful, even the mere mention of their name is the ruination of our name, and the confiscation of everything we have worked for our entire life is meaningless. Our existence can be erased from the earth, just as they are rewriting history as I write this...

The standard of Christianity is their greatest adversary, and they move behind a curtain to undermine it at every juncture and turn. We are shamed with just the mention of our American heritage, and the place our ancestors took to create it is scorned.

As we study our founders, from addresses to personal letters, it seems relevant that they tried very hard to span the time that separated us. They showed us America's potential from their own eyes, their own experiences, and warned us over and over again how easily it can be destroyed, and from the inside out. They wrote of the dangers, the subversion of our pure Christian ideals, and explained, over and over again, how important it was, and is, to have a viable source for truth. They told us that Liberty, once lost, can only be regained by the blood of patriots and tyrants... That the fight to keep it must be done every generation, or it would be taken.

America belongs to We the People

Demoralize a mature, civilized language, and you break down the cohesive culture of that land. When you allow vulgar, godless, virtue-less conceptions that are in direct competition and diametrically opposed to the cohesively moral and ethical strengths that unite us with a moral code of conduct based on fair and just laws, we soon disintegrate into chaos... This should be considered an act of war.

Webster took twenty years to create his dictionary of American English, because he knew the importance and power that words played. Many times he stated that: “A love of virtue, patriotism, and religion” must be taught to our youth, embodied in both family and education, as it is the cement that binds us all.”

In the preface of his worldwide best seller, Webster’s History of the United States, he emphatically wrote: “Republican government loses half of its value, where the moral and social duties are imperfectly understood, or negligently practiced.”

Without an understanding of the values that these original words imparted, our founding documents, The Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution cannot be fully understood, or implemented.

Information, from secular media (without God), to our secular institutions of higher learning, immoral, decadent, irresponsible, and unloving ideas become the norm. Progressive professors are very active in changing the meaning of America, and perverting words are their weapons of choice. This is called VERBICIDE... and the definition is the deliberate distortion of the meaning of a word to promote change. This is intentional, and is an act of war. It is a war raging all around us, not only for our treasure, but for the minds and souls of our children.

We have more than doubled our national debt in the last ten years. A united entity has enslaved us, and the future of our children with a debt that can never be paid is reality. It is the legacy of their parent's lethargic trusting ignorance they bequeath. Those who have betrayed us, are beyond all rule of law, and as they print money out of thin air that cannot be traced, unaccountable and above all law, even Maritime or International Law or our Constitution... we are not even allowed to look into our own Fort Knox for over fifty years... Take a pause, and think about this. Who are these people who own us?

One, in-our-face concept, is the constant reference to the word Democracy. America is not a Democracy and never was. From its inception, we have had a Republic based on Constitutional Law. We must educate our families, friends, and our schools of the emphatic difference between a democracy and a republic. Our thoughts have been compromised by Progressive revisionists that promote verbicide. Why? Because they want our Constitution to be fluid, so that it can be more easily manipulated for their Socialist/Communitistic/Progressive agenda... to transcend to Marxism. When you degrade a language, as is being done in University, we quickly lose identity, become divided, and unable to come together for a common cause. We also become very easy to control.

Our forefathers believed that democracy had no lasting power. It promotes mob rule, and just as bloody to keep as a monarch or aristocracy. In a democracy, the voting majority can force their will on the minority, coerced by feelings, and instilled by violence. A Republic rules by laws based on morals and ethics, the springboard of stable, fair, and promotes a concept virtually unknown to the left, individual responsibility. Note how the Marxist Progressives disrupt truth and dialogue by violence. DO NOT RESPOND in like kind! Arrest them all, and charge them for their crimes. Do not play into their hands. Use our Constitution and Rule of Law!

Corporate Profit and the use of puppet dictators...

One can see well the moral worth of leaders who continually promote one war after another for corporate profit. They dispose of duly elected presidents for that end, and displace them with easily controlled puppet dictators. Do they promote a Republic based on Constitutional Law, as our founders bequeathed to us? No, because they know that they would no longer be able to ravage that country. There would be human rights, and laws that would thwart their tyrannical, oppressive, despotic, totalitarian intrusions. When questioned, their response is always the same, that the people who live there would never accept a Republic, as they come from a church-state. This is a lie.

Our founders spoke of Divine Law, “natural law, natures God.” And this is true not only for our beloved America, but for all nations as well. Look at what Progressive ideology based on distortions, and the promotion of verbicide and revisionism from kindergarten to University have wrought... primarily, the perversion of our God-given civil liberties. Civil Liberties are not granted by men, but are a gift from Almighty God. This is what the Godless Progressives want destroyed, as it stands in the way of their promotion of a godless society, controlled by them. That concept must be denied, and emphatically, if Liberty is our goal.

One other verbicide worth noting is the displacement of freedom over the word Liberty. There is a difference. We are in the Liberty movement, not the freedom movement. Freedom sounds so empowering, but we will never have the freedom to do anything we want. Laws are in place to protect innocence, and to insure Liberty from Tyranny. Give me Liberty, or give me death is the rallying cry of America. Can you imagine a world of Democracy and freedom to do anything? What a blood bath that would be! No, another example of the power of words, and how they manipulate truth, and I assure you, it is intentional.

Alexander Hamilton said: “The law... dictated by God Himself is, of course, superior in obligation to any other. It is binding over all the globe, in all countries, at all times, No human laws are of any validity if contrary to this.”

Thomas Jefferson said: “A democracy is nothing more than mob rule, when fifty-one percent of the people may take away the rights of the other forty-nine percent.”

Remember the Progressive dialogue spewing like smoke after President Trump’s win of the electoral college? Not even a mention that the electoral college is a true fail-safe for our Republic’s reverting to a ‘democratic’ mob rule! Look at who was promoting, and still do, the dissolution of the electoral college... Progressive talking heads. Talking heads that display a traitorous contempt for our beloved America. No, it wasn’t ignorance, it was contempt, and well orchestrated.

The word democracy does not appear anywhere in the Constitution!

Hamilton said: “Real liberty is never found in despotism or in the extremes of democracy.”

James Madison said in Federalist Paper #10, 1287:

“Democracy is the most vile form of government... Democracies have ever been spectacles of turbulence and contention: have ever been found incompatible with personal security or the rights of property and have in general been short in their lives as they have been violent in their deaths.”

Many other founding fathers took a stand against the word democracy, and I give you one that sums it up with true gravity.

Jedediah Morse said: “A simple democracy is the devil’s own government.”

Author’s note:

We are indeed at war, and it is a war that transcends our moral bounds. It is a war that not only threatens our Homeland, but our very souls as well. It is corruption of the spirit, and it covers us all in an enslavement called voluntary servitude, from the inside out. It is dutifully taught in every Ivy League School as the Machiavellian Doctrine, and it is a prescribed diagram of our enslavement... Read it in: “The Prince.”

It, this doctrine, this mindset, infiltrates into the hearts and minds of our children, and drags us all through this life using subliminal hooks...

Our masters try with all they can muster to manipulate us all from cradle to grave, and if we do not comply, they would see us all burn.

It, this machine, has no stops, no moral compass, and would do anything, anything at all to succeed. Anything at all to stay in power. Anything...

I have grappled my entire life with my Roman Catholic faith, and have considered the many in-depth manipulations of my heart and mind by man-made interpretations of God. I have even denied the veritable existence of the Devil, and what can only be considered his work. It is my failing, my Dulcinea... my inability... but what I see as the basis of this Communist Progressive movement is indeed pure evil, and if there is a devil that plays his hand on this earth, surely he resides in that form of government.

Only a few have the ability to say no to this onslaught, this dependence on Big Brother Government, and its lust and perversions are well hidden and mired in the shadows of a deep state... buried in swampy recesses. It is propped up by masses of people who hope to be taken care of, instead of taking responsibility for themselves, and it is a veritable army, minions, desperate, selfishly inspired, and myopically prone to tantrums as they find an inability to cope their reason for being.

President Donald Trump is our only hope for Liberty without violence. Indeed, he is our last hope to take this country back without bloodshed. God help him...

But know this, Liberty will be ours, no matter what... and those who stand in the way will make good fertilizer for our Republic based on Constitutional Law. The time for playing games is over...
