

TOO MANY DEAD FROM GUNS

by michael-herbert: keehn

June 17, 2017

Recently, we had the shooting incident in Washington, District of Columbia, the seat of Government of the United States. Of those shot, Steve Scalise was/is the Majority Whip on the Republican side of the isle, and is reported to be very supportive of the current undertaking of Government to deal with the human trafficking problem. Hmmm, what do I think about that? Well, maybe it's a coincidence and there is no connection. But I have noted that Mr. Scalise was initially reported as in stable condition, and after reaching medical care, is now reported as critical.

Before Washington, we had the Sandy Hook School shooting incident, which certainly seems to be a false flag in which nobody was killed. Looking back further, there was the Columbine school shooting incident, resulting in the deaths of 13 human beings. Looking into this further, we find that 13 human beings were killed at the Century Theater in Aurora, Colorado. In this incident, the police found the alleged perpetrator in the back-seat of a car out back of the theater, confused and disoriented if my memory serves me correctly.

Doing a little research we find that:

“Obama’s last two years in office included not only the highest-casualty mass shooting in recent American history, but also, after years of declining violence, an uptick in gun murders nationwide in 2015.” – The Guardian

So here we see that after years of declining violence, there was an increase in gun murders nationwide in 2015 under the administration of Barrack Hussein Obama! And so, there is a push by Leadership, and there has been for a very long time now, to restrict the ownership of guns. The rationale being that guns are responsible for killing people.

Well, I read about an interesting experiment performed by an ordinary American that might shed some light on the validity of this rationale. In this experiment, the American took his rifle out to the front porch of his home and placed it carefully on the porch. He had also taken a box of ammunition (bullets) for the rifle and placed them beside the rifle. Then he sat back and waited. He waited all day and the rifle did not load itself and shoot anybody!!! I know, it's a little bit over the top, but he did it because stupid people think that the gun, an inanimate object, is what kills people. The gun is completely without the power to act on its own and kill anyone. Invariably, it takes a human being to kill another human being! Therefore, the gun is really not the culprit.

So, if the gun is not the culprit in the murder of other human beings, what is the culprit? Could it be the hate that is generated by the Leadership Left that is responsible? Could it be the entitlement mentality created by the Leadership Left? I don't know, maybe. But, in the end, the gun is definitely not responsible, another human being is responsible!

But, the Left Side of the isle maintains that if Americans were denied ownership of guns, they would not have guns to commit these murders. Well, that may be true, but what might the consequences be if that were the case.

Well, the RIGHT to own arms is embodied in the Second Amendment to the Constitution for the United States. It was not put there so that Americans could hunt Buffalo, Deer, Elk, Antelope, or any other critter. It was put there so that future Americans could not be subjugated¹ to tyrannical forms of Government and Law. A large number of Americans died to provide us with rights such as this one. And in my view, it is only cowards who would support the loss of such rights that so many died to provide.

Well, let us examine what deaths guns and other arms have been responsible for. We begin this section with an understanding that our Leadership is controlled by and through the national debt of trillions of dollars that is owed to a Banking Elite. And it is this Banking Elite who has controlled visible Leadership for a very long time now, although that may be changing with the election of Donald Trump. For a more in-depth examination of this issue, one may wish to read: Government 1a.

By virtue of the fact that the Creditor (also known as the Banking Elite) controls the visible Leadership of the United States, we have a conspiracy. The process is the same in the United States as it has been in England. And, of course, now this process has spread to many other Western Countries. In order for us to see the treachery and loss of human life that has been the result of the influence the Banking Elite has exercised over visible Leadership, let us take a look at a little past history. We'll begin our examination of Guns and Arms by going back to the Japanese bombing of Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941.

The story of the attack on Pearl Harbor by Japanese forces on December 7, 1941, begins with Lieutenant Commander Arthur McCollum of the Far East Desk of Naval Intelligence in Washington, D.C. Even though World War II in Europe was well underway, the United States was still not part of it. While it would be expedient to say that President Franklin Roosevelt wanted the United States to enter the war, he was certainly not the only one. Roosevelt, like almost all Presidents, was under control of the Banking Elite, therefore, it is the elusive Bankers (the invisible Leadership) who wanted the United States in the War to enhance their fortunes, but probably at least as important, to expand their power, control and influence throughout the world. United States Presidents are not their own master and it would be wise to know that anything a President of the United States does, is most likely a directive from the Banking Elite.

Lieutenant Commander McCollum had written a memo that was circulating around the offices of Leadership in Washington, D.C. This memo called for provoking Japan into an overt act of war against the United States. This would open the door for the United States to enter World War II since Japan was an ally of Germany.

McCollum's experiences made him uniquely groomed for the position he held as related to Japan. In 1898 he had been born to Baptist parents in Nagasaki, Japan, and spent his youth in Japan, living in several Japanese cities. Thus he understood their culture and spoke their language. McCollum attended the United States Naval Academy and after graduation, this young Naval Officer was assigned to the United States Embassy in Tokyo, Japan. There, he took a refresher course in the Japanese language.

McCollum's five page memo listed eight pressure points that could be used to deliberately provoke Japan into an overt act of war against the United States. The upshot of the whole plan was to engineer a situation that would mobilize reluctant Americans into joining England in their struggle against the German forces overrunning Europe and currently bombing London, in other words, to psychologically brainwash Americans into entering World War II. Opinion polls of 1940 showed that Americans did not want involvement in yet another of the never-ending wars in Europe. Today, of course, America has become the source of never-ending wars throughout the world. But, back in 1941, that was not the case. In 1941, Leadership knew that Americans would need a call to action, in short, American minds needed some psychological profiling (brainwashing). What was needed was a MOBILIZING EVENT, an event such as an attack on the United States by Japan. This would provide the necessary door opening catalyst and become the needed event to brainwash the American people into entering the WAR.

Every intercepted message from Japan's military or diplomatic corp was decoded in Washington, D.C. and routed through the Far East Desk, which was McCollum's section, before being routed to CEO (President) Roosevelt.

Points of the plan:

- A. Make an arrangement with Britain for the use of British bases in the Pacific region, especially Singapore.
- B. Make arrangements with Holland for the use of base facilities in the Dutch East Indies.
- C. Give all possible aid to the Chinese.
- D. Send heavy cruise ships to the Orient, Philippines and/or Singapore.

- E. Send submarines into the Orient.
- F. Keep the main Naval Strength of the Pacific close to Hawaii.
- G. Require that the Dutch decline to grant Japan the much needed economic concessions, especially oil.
- H. Implement a complete United States trade embargo against Japan to coincide with the same from Britain with the objective of destroying Japan's economy.

In simple terms, Japan would either be required to die or fight. Thus, Leadership knew that this would eventually cause the Japanese to engage in an overt act of war against the United States which could then be used to manipulate the minds of the American people! And this remains a key strategy of Leadership to this day.

December 7, 1941 – Japan Bombs Pearl Harbor

In command of American Naval forces in the Pacific at the time is Admiral Kimmel. H. E. Kimmel, a four-star admiral, was commanding the U.S. Pacific Fleet at the time of the Pearl Harbor attack. Before the Pearl Harbor Investigating Committee, Admiral Kimmel testifies:

"We needed one thing, my vital need was the information available in Washington [D. C.] of the intercepted dispatches, which told when and where Japan was poised to strike. I did not get this information." – Admiral Kimmel, testifying before the Pearl Harbor Investigating Committee.

What was not known to the American people at the time, and for a long time afterward, is that Washington's code breakers had broken the Japanese Military and Diplomatic codes. Because the codes had been broken, Leadership in Washington, D.C. was fully aware of Japan's intent to attack Pearl Harbor along with when that attack would occur, but Washington Leadership did intentionally not notify Admiral Kimmel, and it is this intentional withholding of crucial information on the part of Leadership that Kimmel is referencing in his testimony above.

But, from the perspective of Washington Leadership, this wasn't a failure, it was a success, Japan had attacked! Washington Leadership had their catalyst for WAR, as well as their scapegoat! Kimmel was removed from command and reduced to his permanent two-star rank of Rear Admiral. He would subsequently retire from the Navy with that rank.

Leadership's engineering of the attack on Pearl Harbor and then withholding crucial tactical information from reaching Admiral Kimmel, led to the death of around two-thousand-four-hundred (2,400) Americans. Therefore, we no longer need to deceive ourselves about how many thousands of American lives that visible Leadership will sacrifice to advance the goals and agenda of the Banking Elite.

The Atomic Bomb

Americans were later told, by their elected officials, that dropping the nuclear bombs on Nagasaki and Hiroshima was necessary to prevent a million American casualties. This was a lie! We were never informed that Japan had been privately suing for peace for some months before the dropping of those two nuclear bombs.

"[Secretary of State Edward] Stettinius called the meeting to order to discuss an urgent matter; the Japanese were already privately suing for peace, which presented a grave crisis. The atomic bomb would not be ready for several more months. 'We have already lost Germany,' Stettinius said. 'If Japan bows out, we will not have a live population on which to test the bomb.'" - The Secret History of the Atomic Bomb; Mullins, June 1998

Therefore, in order for Leadership to test the Atomic bomb on a living human beings, approximately 80,000 people died instantly, while another 55,000 would die from the radiation and other effects of the bomb, bringing the total death toll to 135,000 people with the dropping of one nuclear bomb. When 135,000 people die, how many are children? Perhaps half? Was it really necessary when we had pushed them into attacking us, and when they were already suing for peace? Between the two nuclear bombs dropped approximately 226,000 human beings died.

Gulf of Tonkin

OK, Pearl Harbor and the un-necessary dropping of two nuclear bombs are two instances of considerable and unnecessary life ending behavior, now we remember the Gulf of Tonkin. There were actually two Gulf of Tonkin incidents, the first actually occurred. In the first instance, North Vietnam gun boats did attack an American War Ship. However, at the time, North Vietnam was under attack by the U.S. supported South Vietnamese Navy and the Laotian Air Force. During the attack the USS Maddox was engaged in aggressive intelligence gathering in North Vietnamese Waters when attacked by North Vietnamese Gun Boats.

But it was not this first instance on which the lie to the American people was set forth. There was a claim by the Leadership of the United States, of a second attack by North Vietnamese gun boats, on the innocent USS Maddox, which was purported to be on routine patrol in international waters, which never occurred. This false claim (read LIE) by the Leadership of the United States led to the passage of the Gulf of Tonkin Resolution which served to escalate the Vietnam War. The Gulf of Tonkin resolution gave President Johnson legal justification for deploying U.S. military forces to the region and the commencement of open warfare against North Vietnam, but a WAR was never declared.

This lie ultimately led to the escalation of the Vietnam War, resulting in the deaths of 2-million Vietnamese, 1-million Laotians, 1-million Cambodians, and 56,000 Americans. Over four million Asian and over fifty-thousand American human beings dead because of United States Leadership.

The point, of course, is that human life means absolutely nothing to either visible or invisible Leadership. Neither the lives of people in other countries, nor for that matter, the lives of United States citizens. We are all grease for their get wealthy and control the world resources machinery. We now know, of course, that the Vietnam War was never intended to be won or ended. For those interested in what actually caused the ending of the Vietnam War, you might wish to read about it in Sui Juris, pardon me but... #5 on page 12.

WACO, TEXAS

On April 19, 1993, eighty Americans were murdered by Agents of the United States, acting under polices and orders of United States Leadership, at Waco, Texas. Twelve of these Americans were children, younger than five years of age.

The mainstream misleadia never gave us any background information on the Branch Dividians, as they were called, and so we'll begin with a little historical information. In 1929, a Seventh-day Adventist Sabbath School teacher named Victor Houteff wrote a book which called for reformation of the church. His message was not well received or accepted by the church hierarchy and Houteff was banished from the church.

He and his followers established a headquarters outside Waco, Texas in 1935. The point being that this religious community was not some johnny-come-lately religious cult as portrayed by the mainstream misleadia. In 1993, they were now quite old and established. They were called "Branch Davidians" which had nothing to do with their current leader's name being David Koresh. The term "Davidian" reflected their belief in the restoration of the "Davidic Kingdom." As legitimate as any other religious belief.

Like all religions, including Catholic, Baptist, Mormon, Episcopal, etc., this offshoot of the Seventh Day Adventist's had their own belief or take on the Bible that differed from the others in the same way other major religious denominations differ in their beliefs, one from the other. It is common knowledge, or should be, that every religion holds that theirs is the one true path to God and life everlasting.

This religious group had been given permission to settle three villages, although they lost two of them due to lack of people coming to inhabit them. But one survived. The Christian folk of this simple community lived in a communal plywood house they had built themselves.

I do not know if it was Government Leadership, or the mainstream misleadia who first tagged this small religious community with the identity of CULT, but back in 1993, a majority of Americans still believed in their Leadership. Thus, in identifying the Branch Davidians as a cult, they were immediately tainted in the eyes of mainstream America. The term cult always seemed to bring up thoughts of wacko's, discontents, troublemakers, and the like in the minds of many. It's an old tactic and one that should be discarded by journalists. It works something like this:

He's one of those, and we all know what one of THOSE is like!

Once we assert that he is one of those, then we no longer have to listen to what he's saying, or think about him in human terms. It's simple mind manipulation by someone people probably trust, and it is intended to TURN OFF critical thinking and analysis of the masses. We've fallen for it, probably too many times. It's probably now time for us to grow up and stop falling for this mind manipulation tactic.

The initial "HE'S ONE OF THOSE" claims was made by a local newspaper one day before the raid and continued after the raid.

"On February 27, 1993, the Waco Tribune-Herald began publishing 'The Sinful Messiah', a series of articles by Mark England and Darlene McCormick, who alleged that Koresh had physically abused children in the compound and had committed statutory rape by taking multiple underage brides. Koresh was also said to advocate polygamy for himself and declared himself married to several female residents of the small community. According to the paper, Koresh declared he was entitled to at least 140 wives, that he was entitled to claim any of the females in the group as his, that he had fathered at least a dozen children, and that some of these mothers became brides as young as 12 or 13 years old."
– Wikipedia

And this was all lies. Lies that aided in the deaths of 80 innocent Americans.

On February 28, 1993, a military style raid was conducted by elements of the United States government, ostensibly to serve a search warrant. But something went horribly wrong and shooting began almost immediately. One Branch Davidian member, Wayne Martin, an attorney and graduate of Harvard University Law School, called the emergency phone number, 9-1-1. The transcript (below) of the 9-1-1 call shows that at one point, while listening to the background noise, Police Lt. Lynch says: "That's automatic weapon fire . . ." Automatic machine gun fire can be heard as a helicopter passes overhead during this conversation between Police Lieutenant Lynch and Attorney Wayne Martin: Here is a transcript section of that call:

Martin: They're still attacking.

Lynch: Ah, right.

Martin: There's a chopper with more of 'em.

Lynch: What?

Martin: Another chopper with more people – More guns going off. Here they come!"

Lynch: Ah, right. Wayne Cah (unintelligible)

Martin: More firing!

Lynch: [Unintelligible]

Martin: That's not us. That's them!

In the initial raid, six Branch Davidians and four BATF (Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco & Firearms) agents were killed. It is of interesting note that each of the four agents killed were former body guards for President Bill Clinton. The reader may find Convenient Deaths of interest.

The helicopter used was obtained from the Texas National Guard on the pretext that a drug laboratory was located at Mount Carmel (the name given the Branch Davidian home). However, there was no drug related issue listed on the search warrant to be served on the morning of February 28, 1993. Nor was a drug laboratory ever found. Therefore, someone lied in order to acquire the National Guard helicopter. A criminal act within itself.

To neutralize opposition to government policy & actions, psychological profiling of the American people was implemented in which David Koresh was marketed as everybody's Satan. To the atheist, he was presented as the religious fanatic. To the law-and-order types he was presented as the killer of four law enforcement officers, even though they appeared to have been killed professionally, three with an accurately placed gunshot to the head and the fourth with a shot that severed the aorta artery. To the fundamentalist, demonizing Koresh was effectively established by juxtaposing two allegations... 1) that Koresh claimed to be Jesus Christ, and 2) Koresh kept a harem of other men's wives. Koresh was variously presented as a gun nut, a new age adherent, and involved in drug trade. And finally the coup de grâce... Koresh was a child molester. When Leadership finished with their demonizing of Koresh, there was almost no one in America who didn't hate him. And this is why the American people need to stop believing Leadership and mainstream misleadia!

Because the American people were not sufficiently aware of the mind control tactics utilized by government, with the willing assistance of the mainstream misleadia, Leadership had effectively made David Koresh everybody's Satan. It was now, in the eyes of Leadership and America in general, O-K to murder this man and his followers, including innocent children. And it was Leadership's belief that this would be supported by the people of the United States. Well, initially it was, but, eventually, a large number of Americans figured out they had been lied to.

Of the dead, 24 were under the age of 20 years old. And for what? Because of suspicion there were machine guns on the property, which is legal in Texas after paying a $200 fee. The truth is that the Sheriff's office had previously performed an investigation and no illegal weapons were found. As it turned out, the majority of weapons had been taken to a gun show early on the morning of the raid. There were almost none left at the Branch Davidian home.

Because naïve Americans believed the false assertions and outright lies set forth by government Leaders and officials at this time, lies that were left unquestioned by the compliant mainstream misleadia, over eighty Americans are dead. If interested, the reader may watch Waco, the Rules of Engagement.

Bombing of the Murrah Building

A now, mostly forgotten-event, is the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City which killed 168 people. The explosion occurred on April 19, 1995, the same month and day that Government Leadership and Agents murdered the people in Waco, Texas, except, two years earlier. Rather than paraphrase the information from memory, let us read the analysis of the source, General Benton K. Partin (Retired). General Partin is a Chemical Engineer whose military career centered on the destruction of hardened targets. As such, he is familiar with the abilities and signatures of all types of explosives. For those not interested in all the technical detail, I have highlighted text of interest in RED. That said, let us read extracts from his analysis.

“The media and the Executive branch reported that the sole source of the devastation was a single truck bomb consisting of 4,800 pounds of ammonium nitrate, transported to the location in a Ryder Truck and parked in front of the building. It is impossible that the destruction to the building could have resulted from such a bomb alone.”

“To cause the damage pattern that occurred to the Murrah building, there would have to have been demolition charges at several supporting column bases, at locations not accessible from the street, to supplement the truck bomb damage. Indeed, a careful examination of photographs showing the collapsed column bases reveals a failure mode produced by demolition charges and not by a blast from the truck bomb.”

“To understand what caused the damage to the Murrah Building, one needs to understand some basics about the use and nature of explosives.

“First, blast through air is a very inefficient energy coupling mechanism against heavily reinforced concrete beams and columns.

“Second, blast damage potential initially falls off more rapidly than an inverse function of the distance cubed. That is why in conventional weapons development, one seeks accuracy over yield for hard targets. That is also why in the World Trade Center bombing² (where the only source of blast damage was a truck bomb) the column in the middle of the bombed-out cavity was relatively untouched, although reinforced concrete floors were completely stripped away for several floors above and below the point of the bomb's detonation (see Time Magazine, 3-8-93, page 35).

“By contrast, heavily reinforced concrete structures can be destroyed effectively through detonation of explosives in contact with the reinforced concrete beams and columns. For example, the entire building remains in Oklahoma City were collapsed with 100-plus relatively small charges inserted into drilled holes in the columns. The total weight of all charges was on the order of 200 pounds.

“The detonation wave pressure (1,000,000 to 1,500,000 pounds per square inch) from a high detonation velocity contact explosive sweeps into the column as a wave of compressive deformation. Since the pressure in the wave of deformation far exceeds the yield strength of the concrete (about 3,500 pounds per square inch) by a factor of approximately 300, the concrete is turned into granular sand and dust until the wave dissipates to below the yield strength of the concrete. This leaves a relatively smooth but granular surface, with protruding, bare reinforcement rods – a distinctive signature of damage by contact explosives. The effect of the contact explosive on the reinforcement rods themselves can only be seen under microscopic metallurgical examination. (The rods are inertially confined during the explosion and survive basically intact because of their much higher yield strength and plasticity.)

“When a reinforced concrete structure is damaged through air shock coupling and the pressure is below the compressive yield strength of the concrete, the failure mode is generally compressive structural fracture on one side and tensile fracture on the other__ both characterized by cracks and rough fracture surfaces. Such a surface texture is very different from the relatively smooth granular surface resulting from contact explosives.

“Tab 2 [not included here] is a cross section view of the building looking from the west. The very large header or cross beam is shown at the north edge of the third floor. A large but smaller header is seen at the recessed north edge of the second floor with a brace beam extending out to the large columns in Row A. The front of the whole building is glass.

“Tab 3 shows the architectural layout of the first floor of the Murrah Building and the location of the truck bomb with superimposed circles of roughly equal levels of damage potential. The explosive force drops rapidly (initially proportional to one over the distance cubed) as the shock front travels farther and farther away from the truck bomb. After the release wave, the shock front will propagate proportional to one over the distance squared.

“The maximum possible yield from 4800 pounds of ammonium nitrate would be obtained if it were in a compressed sphere and detonated from the center. That would produce a 4.4 foot diameter sphere of detonation products at about 500,000 pounds per square inch. By the time the blast wave hits the closest column, the pressure would have fallen off to about 375 pounds per square inch. That would be far below the 3500 pound compressive yield strength of the concrete. Any column or beam failure from the truck bomb would therefore have been from blast wave structural loading and not from any wave of deformation in the concrete.

“The basic building structure consists of three rows of columns (35 feet apart) with eleven columns in each row (20 feet apart). The four corner columns have an external clam-shell-like structure for air ducts, etc. If we label the column rows A, B, and C from front to back, and number the columns 1 through 11 from left to right, then columns A2, A3, A4, A5, A6, A7, A8, and B3 collapsed, essentially vertically. Tab 2 shows a very large reinforced concrete header at the floor level of the third floor of column row A. Much larger columns extend from the header down for the odd-numbered columns, i.e., A3, A5, A7, and A9. The even- and odd-numbered columns extended from the top of the building down to the header. The foundation of the building is a heavy, reinforced concrete slab with no sub-levels.

“From the potential damage contours on Tab 3, and assuming the single truck bomb, the pressure and impulse for collapsed columns B4, B5 and A7 are all in the 25 to 35 pounds per square inch region. However, the much smaller and closer columns, B4 and B5, are still standing, while the much larger column A7 is down. Column B3 is down with 42 percent less pressure and impulse than columns B4. These facts are sufficient reason to know that columns B3 and A7 had demolition charges on them.

Moreover, there is not sufficient blast impulse at that range to collapse any of the three. In fact, columns B2, B4 and B5 all have the sheet rock and furring strip finish still intact on the second and third floors except where damaged by falling debris.

“The large header across the front of the building at the third floor of Row A was not blown back into the building as one may expect from such a large bomb. The header came straight down but rolled backward 90 degrees because the columns above the header rested off center toward the back.” – Analysis of General Benton K. Parton, Retired

And there you have it ladies and gentlemen. There were charges placed on support columns of the Federal Building not accessible from the street. In short, at least some of the destructive damage to the Federal Building in Oklahoma City, if not most of the damage, was an inside job. And since it was an inside job, and since that aspect has not been revealed, nor has any insider been arrested and/or convicted, it is likely that this event was orchestrated by Leadership, although probably with no visible involvement.

Those old enough, and with good memories, may remember that a local University seismograph recorded two separate blasts in this event, although the mainstream misleadia made light of it. Coordinating the truck blast with the charges placed on support columns inside the building would have been nearly impossible, thus, the University recording of the second blast. Additionally, there were witnesses who remember hearing two blasts. But the mainstream misleadia marginalized them as well.

For those who may not know, the evidence from the attack on Americans at Waco, Texas, was kept in the Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City. All the evidence was apparently destroyed. Convenient to say the least.

WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION

This lie, that Iraq possessed weapons of mass destruction, is one of the more recent ones and certainly one that many adults of today should remember well. In telling us this lie, President George Bush said:

“Either you are with us, or you are with the terrorists!” – President George W. Bush

Well, if I was with United States Leadership, then as now, then I am with the TERRORISTS! This lie was used to attack a country and its people that had not harmed the United States, but it had oil resources the Leadership of the United States wanted. The premise of the LIE was that Iraq was harboring, or training, or supplying terrorists. Meanwhile, it is the United States that is causing harm, supplying terrorists, making up lies to go into other countries and kill the indigenous people, install a puppet government, then steal their natural resources. In short, United States Leadership are the real terrorists!

September 11, 2001 – 9/11

The Official Story from the Leadership of the United States is as follows:

“On the morning of September 11, 2001, nineteen men, armed with box cutters, directed by a man on dialysis in a cave fortress half-way around the world, using a satellite phone and laptop computer, directed the most sophisticated penetration of the most heavily defended air space in the world, overpowering the passengers and combat trained pilots on four commercial aircraft, before flying those planes wildly off course for over an hour without being molested by a single fighter-interceptor.

“These nineteen hijackers, devout religious fundamentalists who liked to drink alcohol, snort cocaine, and live with pink-haired strippers managed to KNOCK DOWN THREE BUILDINGS WITH TWO PLANES in New York, while in Washington, a [terrorist] pilot who couldn’t handle a single engine Cessna was able to fly a 757 airliner in a descending 8000 foot 270-degree cork-screw turn to come in exactly level with the ground, hitting the Pentagon directly in the budget analysis office where Department of Defense staffers were working on the mystery of the 2.3-trillion dollars that Defense Secretary, Donald Rumsfeld announced was missing from the Pentagon’s coffers in a press conference the day before, September 10, 2001.

“Fortunately, the news anchors knew who did it within minutes – Osama bin Laden. The pundant’s knew within hours – Osama bin Laden. The Administration knew within a day – Terrorists who committed these acts and those who harbor them. And the evidence literally fell into the FBI’s lap – ‘that a hijackers passport was found blocks from the World Trade Center crash site if you can believe that.’ – CNN news man

“But for some reason a bunch of crazy conspiracy theorists demanded an investigation into the greatest attack on American soil in history. That investigation was delayed, underfunded, set up to fail, a conflict of interest, and a cover-up from start to finish. It was based on testimony extracted through torture, the records of which were destroyed. It failed to mention the existence of [collapsed] World Trade Center Building-7, Able-Danger, P-Tech, Sibel Edmonds, the relationship between Osama bin Laden and the CIA, and the drills of hijacked airliners being flown into buildings that were being simulated at the precise same time those events were actually happening.

“The Investigation Commission was lied to by the Pentagon, the CIA, the Bush Administration, and as for George Bush and Dick Cheney, well, no one knows what they told the 9/11 Investigation Commission because they gave their testimony in secret, off the record, not under oath and behind closed doors.

“The Investigation Commission did not bother to look at who funded the attacks because that question is ultimately of “little practical significance” [little = HUGE]. Still, the 9/11 Commission did brilliantly in answering all the questions the public had, except most of the victims’ family members’ questions, and pinned blame on all the people responsible, although no-one so much as lost their job. Determining that the attacks were “failure of imagination” because “no-body in our government, at least, and I don’t think the prior government could envision flying airplanes into buildings” – President George W. Bush. Except the Pentagon, FEMA, NORAD, and the NRO [National Reconnaissance Office].

“The CIA destroyed 2.5 terabytes of data on Able-Danger, but that’s OK because it probably wasn’t important. Meanwhile, the SEC [Securities Exchange Commission] destroyed their records on the investigation into the insider trading that took place just before the attacks, but that's OK because destroying the records of the largest investigation in SEC history is just part of routine record keeping.

"NIST [National Institute of Standards and Technology] has classified the data that they used for their model of the collapse of World Trade Center Building-7, but that's OK because knowing how they made their model of the collapse would 'JEOPARDIZE PUBLIC SAFETY'."

"Meanwhile, the FBI has argued that all their material related to their investigation of 9/11 should be kept secret from the Public. But that's OK because the FBI probably has nothing to hide."

"And although Osama bin Laden lived in a cave fortress in the hills of Afghanistan, he somehow got away. Then he was hiding out in Tora Bora, but somehow got away. Then he lived in Abbottabad for years, taunting the most comprehensive intelligence dragnet, employing the most sophisticated technology in the history of the world, for a decade, releasing video after video with complete impunity, while getting younger and younger as he did so, before being found in a daring seal team raid which was not recorded on video. In which he did not resist, nor use his wife as a human shield, and in which these crack special forces operatives panicked and killed this un-armed man, supposedly the best source of intelligence about those dastardly terrorists on the entire planet. Then they dumped his body in the ocean before telling anyone about it. This followed by a couple dozen of the seal team's members [later] dying in a helicopter crash in Afghanistan."

"This is the Official Story of 9/11, brought to you by the people who have lied to you at every step of the way, for years."

"If you have any questions about this story, you are a bat-shit, paranoid, tin-foil head, dog-abusing, baby-hater, and will be reviled by everyone! If you love your country and/or freedom, happiness, rainbows, rock-n-roll, puppy dogs, apple pie, and your grand-ma, you will never ever express doubts about any part of this story to anyone, ever!" – The Corbett Report

And THAT, my fellow American, is what you are supposed to believe. Do you? Or maybe you are a bit like other Americans who think that there is no limit on the murder and treachery that Leadership of the United States will not engage in to control what we think, manipulate our minds and further the enslavement of the American people as well as others. While we may have been gullible in the past, that does not mean that we must continue to be so. Our gullibility is costing the lives of hundreds of thousands of people every time the U.S. Military attacks a country.

The Cell Phone Calls from the Hijacked Airliners

We may remember the cell phone calls that passengers and flight-crew made from the hijacked Airliners to loved ones on September 11, 2001 (9-11). And since the aircraft had already been hijacked when the calls were made, the plane was flying at cruise-altitude. This presents a credibility problem for Leadership as well as the mainstream misleadia because cell phones do not work at cruise-altitude. Yet, the calls were evidently made, this could be easily verified in phone records and we have no doubt the Government and mainstream misleadia did exactly that. But since the cell phones don't work at cruise-altitude, then where was the airliner and passenger when the call was made? Obviously, the alleged callers had to be on the ground, somewhere, someplace, within range of a cell-tower. But Leadership has not seen fit to identify the cellular phone tower used. Nor has any investigative journalism been applied to this issue by the mainstream misleadia.

It's been pretty well established that passenger planes did not hit the twin towers, therefore, there were no passenger deaths because of airplanes hitting the twin towers, or the Pentagon, or Shanksville, Pennsylvania. So, what happened to the passengers? Where are the bodies of the passengers at the Pentagon crash site for example? And not only where are the bodies, where are the engines, landing gear, passenger seats, shoes and luggage at the Pentagon? All of these items do not conveniently disappear in a crash!

Regarding Shanksville, Pennsylvania:

"This crash was different. There was no wreckage, no bodies, and no noise." –

Whatever the TRUTH might be about September 11, 2001, the American people have not been told what it is, not yet! Will they ever be told the truth? Good question, probably not in my life time. The coverup is much like the Warren Commission's investigation records on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was sealed for 75-years, until the year 2039. I was a senior in high-school when President Kennedy was assassinated, and I would have to live into my 90's to see the investigative records of the Warren Commission. I'm certain that if I live that long, I will not care at that age!

While I have previously written about the concept of banning guns, I have approached it from a somewhat different perspective. Setting the stage for a question, I said, suppose an individual was to use an automobile and kill fifteen, twenty or more people, would we be facing a ban on the ownership of automobiles? And I answered my own question, saying - NO, we would not be facing a ban on the ownership of vehicles because vehicles do not pose a threat to those who want to control us in every aspect of our lives. While I had set that question and answer to writing a few years ago, I have found it sad that someone has done exactly the same thing, both in France, and recently on the London Bridge. But, exactly as I answered, there is no clamor about banning the ownership of trucks or vans.

And therein is our answer about the issue of Gun ownership. Leadership wants to ban gun ownership so that they can implement policy changes and laws that allow them to subject the people to tyrannical law and rule, as has been going on in Europe, completely visible in the immigration issue.

It is, oh so obvious, that there is a massive Governmental conspiracy and coverup regarding the events of September 11, 2001, but should we be surprised when the whole of Government is one giant criminal conspiracy? Those people, whom the mainstream misleadia call conspiracy theorists, see the conspiracy, not a theory, because they have been mature enough, grown up enough, adult enough, intelligent enough, TO LOOK at the facts and evidence. The mainstream misleadia can only deceive the stupid and/or uninformed.

So far, in Iraq, about 268,000 human beings have died in the Weapons of Mass Destruction LIE, and the follow-up military actions. The death toll in Syria as a result of United States Leadership's efforts to implement regime change is, according to web sources, 470,000, of which 55,000 are children. In Libya it appears that at least 1,300,000 human beings have died due to the United State's fake war on terror. It seems clear that Government is the leader in loss of human life due to guns. Government Leadership policies, actions, agendas and goals has been responsible for, and overseen, the deaths of more Americans than any other group or individual. Often times for the sole purpose of entering into conflict that will financially benefit the military / industrial complex.

From this brief examination of human loss of life due to guns, it appears that it might be beneficial to:

KEEP YOUR GUNS AND BAN LEADERSHIP!!!
